

Prime Minister announces a phased reopening of borders

Prime Minister Pravind Jugnauth announced a phased reopening of Mauritian borders for international travel.

Repatriation of Mauritian nationals will continue until the end of September.

As from the beginning of October more flights will be scheduled to and from designated destinations. Mauritian Nationals, residents and holders of work/occupational permits will be given priority for travel to Mauritius. Passengers will be able to book their airline tickets and hotel rooms online.

The next phase will be the complete reopening of borders which will be considered based on the evolution of the Covid-19 pandemic.
